A joint communique signed by Indian Foreign Minister Swaran Singh and Indonesian Foreign Minister Adam Malik urged all efforts to end the war "through negotiations within the shortest possible time" on the basis of the 1954 Geneva agreements.

NOW THEREFORE, I John B. Gardner, Jr., by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Hope in the proclaim the week of September 17-23, 1966 as in the City of Hope and urge all our citizens to pay special attention during that week to our Federal Constitution and the advantages of American Citizenship.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Hope to be affixed at this day in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six, and the independence of the United States

$1.60 Hour by 1968 Up to Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation sending the minimum hourly wage to $1.60 in 1968 — above the government-recognized poverty income level — and extending coverage to eight million more workers awaits President Johnson's signature.

The Senate approved the compromise bill 55 to 38 Wednesday in almost exactly the form the President requested after rejecting Republican efforts to send it back to House-Senate conference for watering down.

Major provisions would: Increase the present $1.25 minimum wage to $1.40 next Feb. 1 and to $1.60 a year later for nearly 30 million workers now.

Bring under the act for the first time non-Civil Service federal government workers, some farm workers, nonteaching employees of grade and high schools, and employees of hotels, motels, restaurants, laundries, transit systems, colleges and universities.

Broaden coverage to medium-size retail stores, bringing 1.5 million additional workers under the wage and hour law.

The $1.60 minimum would bring to $3,328 the gross income of a covered employee working 40 hours a week for a full year.

That is slightly above the $3,000 which some government agencies consider the minimum an average family must earn to stay out of poverty.

The present minimum wage yields $2,600 on an annual full-time basis.

Chief sponsor Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex., called the bill the broadest expansion of the Minimum Wage Act since it was adopted in 1938. He said it would add $2 billion a year to purchasing power of low-income families.

About 12 per cent of the 29.6 million workers now covered by the act are estimated to be affected by the rise to $1.40 in February. About 18 per cent of those now covered earn less than the eventual $1.60 minimum. Most of the 8 million newly covered workers would begin with a $1 minimum next Feb. 1. The Labor Department estimates slightly more than 1 million of these now earn less than $1.

Charges Negroes Not Assigned

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The North Little Rock Housing Authority has refused to assign Negro families to traditionally all-white housing projects, that city's Council on Human Relations has charged.

W. D. Godsey, chairman of the council's committee on housing, said the committee's complaint to the Department of Housing and Urban Development also concerned the denial of housing to a Negro forced to move by an urban renewal project and by a lack of Negro employees within the authority.

Godsey said a federal official has been in North Little Rock for a preliminary look and is sending an auditing team for further investigation.

Police Chiefs

Elect President

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jack Kelly of Marianna has been appointed temporary president of a new organization, the Arkansas Municipal Police Chiefs Association.

The organization was formed by about 40 police chiefs who attended a seminar here sponsored by the Arkansas Municipal League.

A committee has been appointed to write a constitution and the association will meet at Hot Springs in November to adopt the constitution and elect officers, said R. E. Brians of Little Rock, temporary secretary.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — NBC apparently is operating on the theory that if one show about the men from "U.N.C.L.E." is good for one's Nielsen rating, two will be even better, particularly if the second isn't a man from U.N.C.L.E., but a pretty girl.

As of Tuesday night, we now have TV's first sibling program, "The Girl from U.N.C.L.E.," with Miss Stephanie Powers as an awfully brave kid who gets into horrendous situations from which she is rescued by a resourceful male from U.N.C.L.E.

Miss Powers plays April Dancer, which sounds more like the name of a stripper than of an intrepid agent. She is backstopped by Noel Harrison, Rex's son, who walks into THRUSH traps with the jaunty sangfroid — as well as the hairdo — we have come to associate with David McCallum of the brother show.

If the truth must be told, the girl from U.N.C.L.E. didn't act like a very smart agent. She was assigned to deliver a dog and his vital fleas to a Greek health officer and in the process not only repeatedly lost the dog but got herself and her colleague into mess after mess.

About the best that can be said is that if you enjoy the adventures of the U.N.C.L.E. men, you'll probably find the sister show amusing, too. "Occasional Wife," a half-hour comedy that followed on the network, was one of those thoroughly artificial situations that undoubtedly will produce some 26 or 30 more predictable situations. It is the tale of an ambitious young executive in a company that advances only its married men. So our bachelor hero makes a deal with a young art student to pose as his wife when business requires it.

In the show's favor are a pair of very attractive young performers, Michael Callan who plays the bachelor, looks like a young Craig Stevens and manages to extract more humor out of the script than it deserves. Patricia Harty as the pseudo wife is cute looking and a good comedienne. But the whole presentation is on the coy side and every comedy punch was telegraphed for in advance.

This column is for young people their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help US!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to Helen Help US!, this newspaper.

STRONG, SILENT: SMART OR STUPID?

Dear Helen: The fellow I'm going around with just never talks. He says he likes to hear me talk, but many times he does not even answer me. He thinks talking is for people who like to, and why answer somebody unless a direct question is asked? Trouble is I never know when he's listening. Sometimes I don't think he's very bright, but he won a scholarship to college, and not on athletics either, though he could have.

I read an article about Roger Miller and it said when he says a morning "Hello" he blows his conversation for the day. That's my guy!

Any way to change him? — Chatterbox

Dear Chatterbox: Consider Roger Miller and don't knock the non-talker. Maybe your friend has better things to do with his mind. Anyway you can't make a flapping lip out of a listening ear, so don't try. — H.

Dear Helen: I am a 15-year-old girl, and have been living on this street for a long time, without anyone my own age nearby. Now, suddenly, a new girl my age has moved right next door.

We can't seem to get together. I make all these resolutions to go over and meet her, but I am just too chicken. Every time we run into each other, we just go cold — and it's getting ridiculous. I know it's my fault, and I know she'd be fun to know, but how? Don't tell me to go to her house and introduce myself — she's been here too long for that and I just CAN'T — Discouraged

Dear Dis: Of course you can! Rehearse a little speech — the absolute truth — until you won't stumble (much), then say it the next time you see her. Chances are she too will admit she has been chicken. When she gets to know you better she'll probably tell you she thought you were "stuck-up". Shy people often get that label, you know: this is why you must work doubly hard on the big smile and the pleasant "Hi," even though you are scared to follow it up with a conversation.

I if you always wait for the other person to come to you, honey, you'll spend your life waiting. — H.

TWO GIRLS FOR EVERY BOY?

Dear Helen: My boy friend and I had a heated argument the other night. Since we do many things together, such as horseback riding, movies, swimming — things that cost money — his argument is that it wouldn't be fair to take me out for the fun things and then take another girl out for just sex games.

He tells me that if I wanted to be his girl, I wouldn't say "No."

I love him more than any boy I ever loved, and I don't want to lose him, but I can't make myself say "Yes," because I know it's wrong. Please print this letter for me and many other girls who have this problem. — Noboyd's Girl, age 15.

Dear Girl: If you said "Yes," you'd replace the second girl, right? And what's to keep Mr. Mercenary LoverBoy from thinking, "If she's cheap, she isn't worth spending money on, so I'll get me a number 1 Girl for fun, and keep Number 2 — (you) — around for games." — H.

Dear Helen: Our radio station banned a recording of "Rainy Day Woman" because they said it referred to smoking marijuana — a "rainy day woman" is supposed to be a marijuana cigarette. But they play "Mother's Little Helper," and doesn't that refer to LSD? Or anyway, The Pill? — Interested

Dear Interested: Frankly, I'm not a graduate student of hep talk. . . but I am wondering when they'll ban "Little Brown Jug." It glorifies the alcoholic? — H.

Phils Blank Giants in a Costly Defeat

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Gaylord Perry, the first pitcher to join this year's 20-victory club, must have forgotten to pay his dues.

The San Francisco right-hander, who reached the charmed circle on Aug. 20, failed for the sixth straight time to record his 21st Wednesday when he was outduelled by Jim Bunning as Philadelphia blanked the Giants 2-0.

It was a costly defeat for San Francisco. With first-place Los Angeles and runner-up Pittsburgh both idle, the defeat dropped the Giants a fullthree games off the Dodgers' pace and left them two behind the Pirates.

Richie Allen was the man who did the offensive job for the Phillies. He was at bat with two out in the first inning when Johnny Callison was thrown out stealing. Then Allen, leading off in the second, walloped Perry's second pitch over the right-field fence for his 38th home run of the season.

Bunning, 17-11, took over after that. The veteran right-hander, who was beating the Giants for the fourth time this season, struck out eight, walked only two and scattered five singles.

He got some breathing room in the ninth when Frank Johnson, a Giant rookie, let Callison's drive get past him for a triple and Allen drove the run home with a sacrifice fly.

The two runs batted in gave Allen 106 for the season, third best in the majors.

In the only other National League games played Wednesday, streaking Atlanta topped the Chicago Cubs 3-1 and St. Louis downed Cincinnati 6-2.

In the American League, Kansas City shut out Cleveland 3-0, Boston shaded Chicago 2-1 and Detroit edged Minnesota 3-2. California at Baltimore and Washington at New York were postponed by rain.

Perry, 20-7, has lost five of the six games he has started since winning No. 20. He has given up 52 hits and 15 runs in 35 1-3 innings pitched over that span and his earned run average has jumped from 2.52 to 2.97.

The Braves won their eighth straight, scoring two runs on a one hit in the 10th inning to beat Dick Ellsworth, Felipe Alou and Ty Cline drove in the deciding runs, Alou on a sacrifice fly and Cline on a fielder's choice.

Only 961 fans paid to watch the game played in a light rain at Wrigley Field. It was the smallest crowd in the majors this year.

Tim McCarver walloped two home runs and Curt Flood and Lou Brock added one apiece as the Cardinals ripped the Reds. Ray Washburn got the victory with a six-hitter.

Steadman Promoted by K. C. Chiefs

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Promotion of Jack Steadman to executive vice president and general manager of the Kansas City Chiefs' football club was announced today by Lamar Hunt, president of the American Football League team.

Hunt also announced that Steadman had been given a new three-year contract. He has been general manager of the Chiefs since Nov. 1, 1960, the year they entered the league.

Figures Hope to Win Over DeQueen 14-0

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fort Smith Northside, Texarkana, Forrest City and Crossett draw shaky nods this week from the fearless forecaster in a quartet of games that should be dandies.

Northside, ranked third in the state, moves into the tail of fifth-ranked El Dorado on the heels of last week's king-sized scare from Fayetteville. The Grizzlies may have been looking toward this one when they stumbled to a 7-0 triumph. Northside 14-7.

Texarkana, Ark., at Texarkana, Tex.—The Texans have dominated this series of cross-town and state rivals but Lynn Nix may have his best game of Razorbacks yet. Razorbacks 13-7.

Forrest City at De Witt—The visitors have blossomed into strong contenders for the No. 1 ranking among Class AA schools. Forrest City 7-6.

Malvern at Crossett—The Leonards, like Forrest City, have rolled to a pair of victories. But Crossett just might be invincible in its class. Crossett 13-6.

Two Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference teams launch their seasons tonight. Tab Delta State of Mississippi for a 20-7 triumph over Arkansas A&M at Monticello and give Henderson State a shaky 20-15 nod over Mississippi College at Clinton, Miss.

Last week's tally was 24-4 for a percentage of .812. If Hitted the two-week season total to 43-10-6, a .779 percentage.

two-base error in the third.

Odom scattered five singles and fanned five while outpitching Cleveland's Sam McDowell and squaring his record at 4-1. He has allowed only two earned runs in his last four starts—including a one-hit 4-1 victory over New York—lowering his ERA from 5.00 to 3.04.

The A's nicked McDowell, 8-3, for only three hits in the seven innings he worked, but bunched Danny Cater's single, Joe Nolasco's double, a walk and a ground out for two runs in the second. The other hit McDowell was a fourth-inning homer by Dick Green.

McDowell posted eight strikeouts and Luis Tiant added six in his two-inning relief stint for the Indians, who have lost five in a row.

Foy rocked Chicago starter Bruce Howard for his 15th home run following a fourth-inning single by Jose Tartabull and the Red Sox held on behind winner Hank Fischer and reliever Don McMahon.

The White Sox scored in the sixth on singles by Bill Skowron, Ken Berry and Duane Josephson.

British Workers Work Short Week

LONDON (AP)—Thousands of British auto industry employees will go on a reduced work week shortly because the government's deflationary policy makes it hard for prospective car buyers to raise money.

The government put the deflationary measure into force to better the pound sterling, but the auto industry is expected to affect the rich export market as well as the domestic.

Cincinnati Edges Defending Champ
BURLINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Dana Gardens of Cincinnati edged the defending champion Art's Aces of Omaha, Neb., 1-0 Monday night in a playoff to win the Women's National Slow-Pitch Softball Tournament.

The Cincinnati lasses beat Art's Aces, 2-1, earlier in the championship game, forcing the playoff.

Thinks Porks Will Win the Title Again

DALLAS (AP)—Arkansas was picked to win a third straight Southwest Conference football championship by members of the press tour—writers who visited the training camps.

Proven manpower, exceptional leadership and a winning habit are cited by members of the tour for giving Arkansas 13 first place nominations and a share in two others.

Texas Christian was picked by two and rated a co-champion by a third writer, thus wound up No. 2 in the rankings.

Baylor and Texas, which finished three-four behind Arkansas and Texas Christian, also received championship designation. Baylor got one vote for full possession of the title and another for co-championship.

Texas also received one vote for first place. No other contender was selected higher than a share of third place.

In order, behind Arkansas, Texas Christian, Baylor and Texas, the consensus selection listed Southern Methodist, Texas Tech, Texas A&M and Rice.

Only once in the past five seasons did the designated champion emerge with the title that had been accorded by the touring writers. This was in 1962 when the 1-2-3 selections' combined and Texas went through undefeated.

The first showdown battle of the early Division 4AA football season comes off this Friday night when the Malvern Leopards travel to Crossett to meet the defending champion Eagles.

Both teams own early 1-0 conference marks.

Malvern downed Magnolia last week 13 to 6 after posting a 35-14 win over Hot Springs on the previous week with a 34-0 win over Arkadelphia after opening the week before with a 14-0 win over Monticello in non-league play.

Malvern with a new offense, developed from the Dingler-T, has caused such comment in 4AA circles. Crossett will prove their first real test.

In other results last week—Camden 27, Fairview 13; Smackover 0, El Dorado 33; Pewscott and Hope 6-all tie; Monticello, Warren, 0-all tie.

Other games this week: Fairview at Smackover; Camden at Magnolia; DeQueen at Hope; Dumas at Warren and Nashville at Arkadelphia.

Coach John Pierce's Crossett Eagles have drawn the early season choice as repeaters in 4AA football with challenges coming from Camden, Malvern and perhaps Warren. However, few 4AA seasons have been completed without at least a couple of major upsets.

The Standings:

Crossett	1 0
Malvern	1 0
Camden	1 0
Hope	1 0
Warren	0 0
Smackover	0 0
Fairview	0 1
Magnolia	0 1
Arkadelphia	0 2

Arkansas, Tide Pose Chief Grid Threats

By SANDY PADWE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—By the end of the football season, UCLA could have the first half of an unprecedented collegiate sports double.

No school has won a national football and a national basketball championship in the same year, but the Bruins have an excellent chance to do both.

(The basketball analysis will have to wait until November; the name Lew Alcindor, height 7-1, will suffice as the prime explanation until then.)

Tommy Prothro, the UCLA football coach, has 30 lettermen returning from the team that defeated Michigan State, 14-12, in the Rose Bowl last New Year's Day.

Though statistics about lettermen have been known to deceive, Prothro's 30 are strong, solid football players.

It is this depth, plus such individual standouts as quarterback Gary Beban, halfback Mel Farr, guard John Richardson and linebacker Dallas Grider that give the Bruins the edge as the nation's top team.

The Bruins will be followed in the top five by Arkansas, Alabama, Michigan State and Syracuse. The second five includes Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Nebraska, Tennessee and North Carolina.

UCLA will have a difficult path to the championship. The Bruins have a truly national schedule which includes Pitt, Syracuse, Missouri, Rice, Penn State, California, Air Force, Washington, Stanford and Southern California.

The key, of course, is Beban. As a sophomore last season, he made the NEA second-team All-America behind Bob Griese of Purdue. It was the only national recognition accorded the sensational newcomer.

Gary set three school records in 1965—yards passing (1,483), touchdowns (14) and total offense (2,073). Five times he had 200 or more yards total offense, including a 282-yard performance against Washington.

Farr, at left half, also had an exceptional season, carrying 122 times for 821 yards, an average of 6.7 yards per carry. Beban was the No. 2 rusher with 590 yards in 194 carries. Richardson and Grider are the top performers on the defensive platoon.

ARKANSAS' Jon Britten is one of the top collegiate quarterbacks in the country.

Coach Frank Broyles of Arkansas has the personnel to match UCLA.

Jon Britten is Beban's equal at quarterback. Harry Jones is a destructive runner from his wingback position, and Loyd Phillips was an All-America tackle last season.

Broyles has experience at 19 of the 22 starting spots. The only sophomores are at stronside guard, tailback and right halfback on defense. Again, Arkansas' main test will be against Texas Oct. 15 at Austin.

Alabama will be after its third straight national championship, but the Tide may have problems replacing Steve Sloan at quarterback, Paul Crane at center and Steve Bowman at fullback.

A big plus for Bear Bryant is the fine group of receivers led by Ray Perkins at weak-side end and Dennis Homan at flanker.

"To show you what I mean, by lack of depth," means Michigan State's Duffy Daugherty, "we have no returning lettermen at center or guard."

There isn't much sympathy for Duffy. He has only four All-America choices returning—halfback Clint Jones, defensive back George Webster, offensive end Gene Washington and defensive end Bubba Smith.

Also returning are such standouts as fullback Bob Apisa, kicking specialist Dick Kenney and offensive tackle Jerry West.

Somewhat, the coaches around the country can't get too upset over Duffy's problems with interior linemen. He always manages to plug the holes.

Syracuse has a major test against UCLA September 24, a game which could be one of the best this season. Floyd Little vs. Farr and Beban is an extremely attractive pairing. Little is the most exciting outside threat in the country.

If Notre Dame comes up with a solid quarterback—and sophomore Terry Hanratty is considered just that—the Irish could be battling for an unbeaten season when they meet Michigan State Nov. 19. Nick Eddy and Larry Conjar, the leading rushers last season, provide the offensive power while captain and linebacker Jim Lynch leads the defensive platoon.

First shot in the Civil War was fired on Jan. 9, 1861.

Chinese Are Dangerously Unpredictable

WASHINGTON (AP) — It is a commonplace now that the Red Chinese are dangerously unpredictable. Among the reasons for it, and one of the best symbols of it, are the Red Guard youth brigades created by the Red leadership.

These brigades have been turned loose by Mao Tze-tung and those close to him to frighten and club the Chinese people into a vast conformity: unquestioning acceptance of the leadership and edicts of Mao and his clique.

There's one thing wrong with the idea.

It is axiomatic that power is only a temporary possession. Dissent can be hushed but not crushed, even though it lies dormant for a generation. Unless the reasons for the dissent are altered, the dissent remains.

It may be silenced through force for the lifetime of the aging Mao. He will retain the power to hush it so long as he remains No. 1 man with the support of those who share his views or who figure they can benefit by his favors.

Perhaps the irritations and disagreements causing the dissent will become too intense to wait until he dies to express themselves.

But once he is gone the dissatisfactions of the discontented — whether they are intellectuals, factory hands, farmers or shopkeepers — will assert themselves.

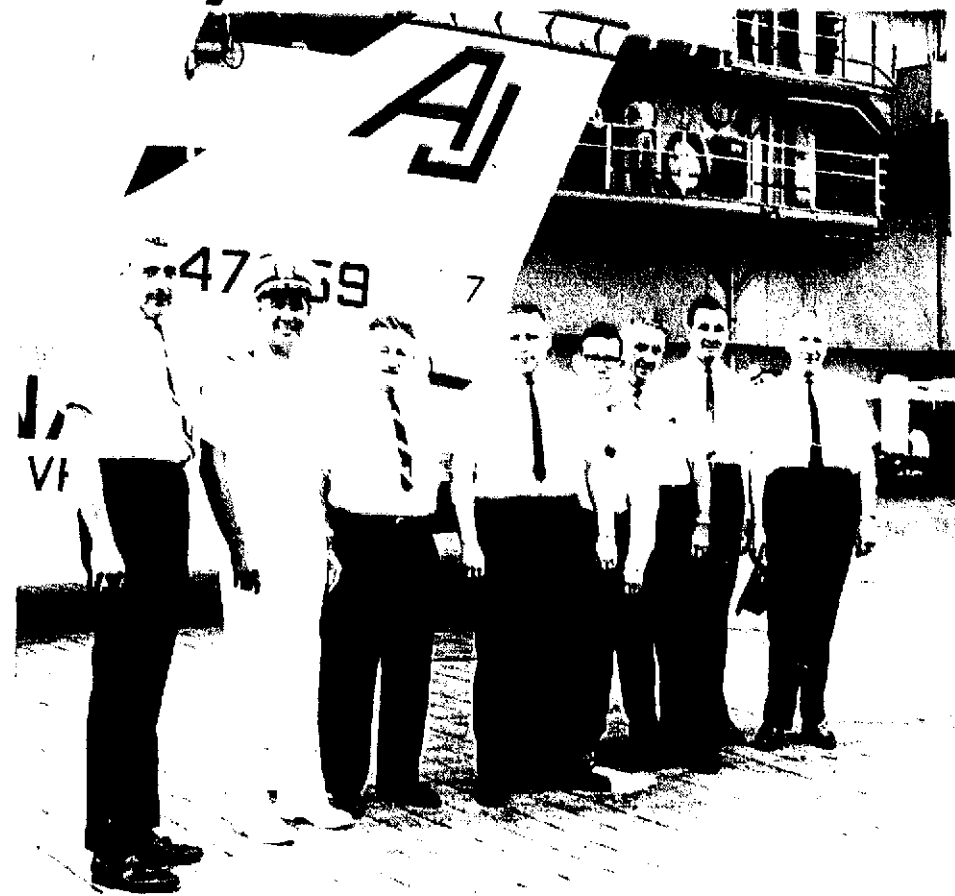

This is so obvious the use of the Red Guards by the Mao leadership is an indisputable sign of its political, social and emotional immaturity. It is one of the factors which make the Red Chinese regime look frightening.

The immaturity has shown itself in various ways. For instance, the impulsive and disastrous "Great Leap Forward" of a few years ago, an experiment in stepped-up communism from which Red China has not yet recovered.

The immaturity has been displayed in its ragged and disastrous foreign policy which in the past couple of years has suffered one setback and humiliation after another around the world.

But the immaturity is coupled with stupidity, which makes it doubly painful. Red China, preaching world communism and proclaiming itself the leader of it, has revealed that its

Secretary of State Takes Cruise

Rear Admiral Dick H. Guinn of the Carrier Shangri-La had several guests on a recent four day cruise whose purpose was to review naval operations showing new types of aircraft. The cruise started from the Mayport, Fla. Naval Base. After 4 days guests were flown from the big carrier back to Jacksonville. Representing the State of Arkansas was Secretary of State Kelly Bryant, at far right.

basic compulsion is the crudest nationalism.

Thus it has alienated itself from the rest of the Communist world with its vilification of the Soviet Union and its childish and primitive effort to claim a monopoly on Red wisdom.

The Soviet Union has been around longer and through time, power and other devices has attached to itself the loyalty of other Red states. More than just Chinese hissing will be needed to shake them loose.

This is not to suggest that the United States, the Soviet Union and the other big powers are not equally nationalistic in their basic motives, but they are a little more subtle about it except perhaps for France, which is crude on that.

But if immaturity makes the Mao regime look emotionally unstable, so do its inferior feelings about its lack of industrial development (while shouting like a giant), other forms of progress, and the fact it is not yet a nuclear power, while the Soviet Union and the United States are. No wonder those nations are its two main targets.

It could be assumed Red China would talk big and do little until it is a No. 1 world power for fear that war with the Soviet Union or this country would bring the ruin of such nuclear development as it has. This is strictly an assumption.

But any country resorting to the Red Guard tactics is erratic and unstable.

Understandably the Johnson administration is avoiding anything — like an invasion of North Viet Nam — which might make the Red Chinese feel compelled to go to war.

The best hope for a maturing and stable China seems to be in the obvious evolutionary process: eventual change in leadership and new conditions, internally and externally, for which the Mao maxims clearly hold no solutions.

GEMINI 11

entry through the atmosphere.

The two Navy pilots, Cmdr. Charles Conrad Jr. and Lt. Cmdr. Richard F. Gordon Jr., planned to trigger the Gemini 11 braking rockets high above the Pacific at 9:24 a.m. EDT to start a meteoric dive back through the heat barrier of the atmosphere.

After that, they were to keep "hands off," letting the spacecraft guidance system steer the spacecraft to its landing area in the Western Atlantic.

The splash to a parachute landing 725 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy was scheduled for 9:59 a.m.

A recovery force of ships and planes headed by the carrier Guam was stationed in the planned landing zone, where weather conditions were reported good.

On all previous manned space flights, the astronauts have either manually controlled the re-entry or have shot back to earth on a ballistic course, much like a bullet shot from a gun.

Officials want to determine if man can more effectively serve as a controller or a monitor during the rush back through the atmosphere.

Command pilot Conrad would quickly take over the control stick if the guidance system did not work.

Conrad and Gordon bring back to earth these six new manned space records: Fastest rendezvous and docking. They caught and captured an Agena satellite during the first orbit after their blastoff from Cape Kennedy Monday. Old mark: Three orbits by Gemini 9.

First rendezvous accomplished using spacecraft radar, computer and guidance system. Previous flights received help from the ground.

First multiple docking in space. Each astronaut joined with and disconnected from the Agena twice.

Highest altitude, 850 miles, achieved by firing the Agena engine while the two vehicles were connected. Previous mark: 476 miles by Gemini 10.

Longest extra vehicular activity by an astronaut, 2 hours, 52 minutes by Gordon, including 44 minutes on his shortened space walk and 2 hours, 8 minutes standing on his seat with hatch open. Previous mark: Eugene Cernan's 2-hour, 10-minute walk on Gemini 9.

First flight of tethered space vehicles. Connected by a 100-foot cord, Gemini 11 and Agena spun through space in a successful formation-flying test.

The last three were set Wednesday in one of man's most exciting days aloft, during which they also established a record for readable quotes — a reporter's delight.

MARINES POUR

By ROBERT TUCKMAN
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — More than 1,200 U.S. Marines landed today by sea and air three miles south of the demilitarized zone that separates North and South Viet Nam.

The assault was directed against a North Vietnamese army division known to be in position in the six-mile buffer zone itself and just to the south of it.

Navy guns and rockets hit the landing site for a half hour before the Leathernecks went ashore in landing craft and helicopters. Jet fighter-bombers hovered overhead ready to pounce on any Communist opposition.

U.S. bombers continued hammering Communist positions in the zone Wednesday, mounted heavy raids Wednesday against oil and rail installations in North Viet Nam.

During the raids, American fighter-bombers encountered at least seven Communist MIG17s in a series of sightings but U.S. spokesmen said there were no clashes.

Two U.S. planes were shot down Wednesday and raised to 370 the total lost over North Viet Nam.

Briefing officers said the Marine landing was launched to prevent a Communist buildup in Quang Tri Province, South Viet Nam's northernmost.

The landing area is almost the same as that used by an amphibious force in July to support Operation Hastings during which almost 1,000 Communist troops were killed in three weeks of fighting.

The new operation is named Deckhouse Four and the landing force is the 1st Battalion of the 26th Marine Regiment.

Their drive was against the reorganized 324B North Vietnamese army division which had been badly chewed up in Operation Hastings. Military spokesmen said the Communist troops "apparently have resupplied and regrouped."

They said units of the 324B Division have been identified as "again moving through the demilitarized zone."

Artillery pieces and other heavy equipment followed the Marines ashore in medium landing craft from the dock landing ship Thomaston.

Before the landing, Navy frogmen and underwater demolition teams cleared the beach and surf. U.S. Navy and Coast Guard patrol boats cleared the offshore area of junks, sampans and small fishing boats.

In the raids over North Viet Nam, Navy planes struck at an oil storage area 26 miles north-east of Hanoi and pilots reported direct hits on two small fuel tanks and hits on a large tank that left it burning. Pilots also reported silencing six anti-aircraft gun positions around the oil depot.

In all, U.S. pilots flew 145 missions over North Viet Nam and said they destroyed or damaged 71 railroad boxcars. Pilots also claimed damaging or destroying 51 barges, 13 bridges, 13 anti-aircraft sites and two missile sites.

One plane, an Air Force F105 Thunderchief, went down 60 miles northeast of Haiphong and the pilot was rescued, a spokesman said. The other plane was a Navy Skyraider from the carrier Coral Sea and the pilot is missing, he said.

The U.S. command also announced that 71 U.S. servicemen were killed by enemy fire last week. The casualties carried to more than 5,000 the number of American soldiers who have lost their lives in the Viet Nam war.

Red Guards Told to End Revolution

By EUGENE LEVIN
TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's leaders today told the Red Guards to end their revolutionary drive which has brought turmoil to the country and criticism from abroad.

The instructions, in an editorial in the official Peking People's Daily, apparently were the climax to a slow effort to bring the youthful guards under control after they got out of hand.

The move reflected concern that the Red Guard activities might be disrupting agricultural and industrial production. There also were indications that Communist officials decided on the full crackdown because of foreign reaction to the guards and because of difficult natural conditions, including drought, at home.

The editorial warned that "under no circumstances must production be allowed to slow down."

"During the busy fall harvest season," it told the Red Guards, "you may cease your revolutionary activities."

Whether the Red Guards will be allowed to resume their activities after the harvest is not certain. The editorial could be a diplomatic way of clamping down on the guards once and for all.

Japanese correspondents reported from Peking that more than half a million Red Guards are scheduled to hold a mass rally in the Communist Chinese capital.

They said Communist party chairman Mao Tze-tung and Defense Minister Lin Biao are scheduled to speak to the meeting.

After the Red Guards first erupted on the Chinese scene in August, they were given repeated official warnings to move with caution and without force. Despite these warnings there continued to be reports of clashes between Red Guards and groups of workers and farmers.

The editorial said the revolutionary students and youths of the Red Guard should learn from the peasants and laborers of China and that there was no need for the Red Guards to try to "instill their revolutionary zeal in factories" or to bother farmers. It added that workers and farmers "are magnificently carrying out revolutionary activities of their own."

Urban Renewal Turned Down

BRINKLEY, Ark. (AP) — Voters turned down Tuesday a proposed 136-acre urban renewal project for the north part of Brinkley. The vote was 378-576. Brinkley's Board of Directors approved the project, but opponents, through a petition campaign, forced a citywide referendum. The project would have cost about $250,000.

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor
Alex. H. Washburn
Down Suwanee
River to Sea and Back Again

Everyone has a dream trip stored up for the day you can finally get around to — and I got around to mine the two-and-a-half-weeks vacation from which I returned yesterday.

In past years every time I went down to Florida to visit my sisters at Sarasota I crossed a magic bridge with an alluring description written across its portal. The bridge spanned the Suwanee River, and over the portal was written the opening line of Stephen Foster's immortal song, "It's just below Perry, Fla., at Old Town, on the Highways 98 - 19 run down the west coast to St. Petersburg."

Always I wanted to take a boat and go down the Suwanee to the Gulf and back — but, as with most vacations, time constantly interfered.

But the last week of August was a moment when time didn't matter. The long and tedious job of converting The Star from old-style letterpress to offset printing — five years in the planning and a year to execute — was complete, and the staff could handle it. I saw my chance, and grabbed it.

I left Hope Aug. 26 with my boat and another Hope man, Tom Purvis, and Aug. 28 found usputting up at the Caddillac Motel across the bridge on the south side of the river. Next morning, Aug. 29, we recrossed to the north side where the Suwanee ables Motel had an excellent concrete ramp, and launched the boat.

The river was high with a 5-mile current due to the runoff from recent rains in Georgia, so we headed upstream — a wise recreation when exploring a strange river: if you should happen to have engine trouble the current would carry you back to the launching ramp. I do have a spare engine, but it's small, and of questionable value bucking current.

But the big engine worked perfectly, and after a 15-mile run upstream Purvis and I turned back, passed under the bridge and headed for the Gulf of Mexico, 10 miles away.

Seventeen miles below the bridge we came to Treasure Island, on the south bank, gassed up, and resumed our voyage, passing scores of cottages on either shore, and fishing boats and cruisers — a pastoral scene even more beautiful than the song implies. "Suwanee River," as you may know, was a product of Stephen Foster's imagination — he never personally saw the river, but was inspired to write from descriptions given him by enthusiastic rivermen. More power to them and to Foster!

At the sea the Suwanee forks into two channels, with the town of Suwanee, Fla., on the north fork, which is the one we took. The tall Georgia pines fall away — and there is the flat horizon of the Gulf.

We circled, and looked, and turned back. You don't go into salt water from a river without a guide, for the combination of river current and ocean tides constantly changes the channels — making sand and rock bars an invitation to disaster for the unwary.

So we turned back, and in 58 minutes were once more at our magic bridge with its alluring inscription — by which time a good deal of the magic had gotten into our blood.

This was my dream trip. Others have had the same dream. Several years ago I mentioned Suwanee and the bridge to C. O. Temple of Hope, and he said, "Yes, I know. I too went down to the sea — don't miss it." We didn't — Purvis and I.

Says Johnson Bypassed by Commission

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An aide to Democratic gubernatorial candidate Jim Johnson said the state Election Commission bypassed Johnson Wednesday in naming the third members of county election commissions.

Phil Stratton said Johnson's preference on several county appointments had been made known to the commissioners.

"They refused to honor the nominee's wishes in certain cases in violation of tradition," Stratton said. "This was just a test to see whether they would co-operate with us. Not one of our preferences was selected."

The commission chairman, Gov. Orval Faubus, and several other commission members said, however, that they had not been contacted by Johnson or his organization, although Treasurer Nancy Hall and Secretary of State Kelly Bryant said they had been contacted about one position.

Stratton said Johnson recommended upwards of five persons for seats on county election commissions.

He said the Johnson interests settled on Miller and Searcy counties as the test of the state Commission's willingness to work with Johnson, in each instance the person recommended by Johnson was not named, but those holding the positions were reappointed.

The county commissions, which supervises all general elections, are made up of the county chairmen of the two parties and a third member appointed by the state commission. There were only 18 changes in the third members, and most of these came in cases where the old member had resigned, died or been made ineligible because of a court ruling forbidding state board and commission members from being election commissioners.

Rep. Nat B. Murphy of Ashley County, Johnson's campaign manager, seemed less irate than Stratton about the appointments.

"We were disappointed that a few of our recommendations were turned down," Murphy said, "but that's the way elections go sometimes."

The new members named, by county:

Noble Barnes in Ashley, Bert George in Carroll, Joe Camblane in Conway, Lenore Miles in Drew, R. Julian Glover in Garland, Joe Kimsey in Hot Spring, Mrs. Carl Barnes in Izard, Sandy Taliaferro in Lincoln, E. W. Savage in Logan, Noah Leatham in Madison, J. C. Portis in Poinsett, Harry W. Parkin in Pulaski, John Burris in Randolph, Norman Goodner in Scott, W. J. Smith in Van Buren, Al Faubus (a cousin of the governor) in Washington, Ted Reed in White and Mrs. Elizabeth Swanson in Woodruff.

Injunction Sought At Grenada

By JAMES BONNEY

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — The Justice Department's top civil rights troubleshooter seeks a preliminary injunction today to require authorities at Grenada, Miss., to protect Negro pupils enrolled at newly desegregated schools.

Asst. U.S. Atty. John Doar wants U.S. Dist. Judge Clayton to strengthen the restraining order which the Justice, a onetime Army general, issued Tuesday night.

Judge Clayton late Wednesday ordered all classes in the public schools of Grenada—45 miles south of Oxford—suspended for today only.

He said he was requiring a number of city and county officials to appear in court today and he was concerned that something could happen in Grenada during their absence from the racially troubled town.

His suspension order came after Negro children, under the protection of more than 300 highway patrol troopers, attended classes peacefully Wednesday with whites for the first time since school began Monday.

White adults attacked Negro children with ax handles, pipes and pieces of chain Monday. The next day, after the highway patrol moved in, the hostile whites turned their wrath on newsmen—who had also been assaulted on Monday.

Gov. Paul B. Johnson rushed highway patrol units to Grenada after the initial violence and said the state was capable of handling the situation.

But the Justice Department asked Judge Clayton Tuesday night to sign the restraining order directing Grenada authorities to cease "their willful failure and refusal" to protect the Negro pupils and their parents. The judge agreed and set the hearing for the preliminary injunction — an intermediate legal step before the issuance of permanent enjoining order.

The 83 Negroes enrolled at the formerly all-white Grenada High School and adjoining Grenada elementary walked a mile across town Wednesday from a Negro church for classes, with the state trooper escort.

Democrats Open Their Convention

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —

Those interested in seeing their party nominee win the governorship hoped that those happy days are indeed here again as the state Democratic convention opened today at Little Rock.

Even on the eve of the convention there were repercussions from the hard fought summer primaries which created a split in the party ranks.

Aides of the nominee, Jim Johnson, expressed disappointment over the failure of the state Election Commission to pick Johnson choices for county election commission posts; and Gov. Orval Faubus had to strain himself to promise outright that he would vote for Johnson.

"I will vote a Democratic ticket," he said when asked if he would vote for Johnson. Only later, after reporters continued to press him, did he say: "Sure I'm going to vote for Jim Johnson."

In the evening, a man that Johnson aides said had Johnson's blessing for a spot on the Miller County Election Commission was appointed state Democratic Party co-ordinator.

The Party headquarters announced Wednesday night that O. S. Carpenter of Texarkana is a "staunch supporter of Justice Jim Johnson." The announcement did not specify Carpenter's duties as co-ordinator.

The two-day Democratic convention should offer an indication of whether the party can pull together its forces for a concentrated battle against Republican party nominees, led by gubernatorial hopeful Winthrop Rockefeller.

Johnson lashed the Faubus administration during his primary speeches, and has said he didn't need the help of "political big-wigs" in his general election campaign.

But Faubus got an invitation to address the convention, something which Johnson could have vetoed.

Apparently Rights Bill Dead for Now

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate sponsors of the civil rights bill decide today whether to make a second attempt to force action on the measure and its controversial open housing provision.

A move Wednesday to end a week-old, off-and-on filibuster against the bill fell 10 votes short of the two-thirds majority needed.

Prospects appear dim for a significant shift in votes.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he would announce today whether he would drop the bill and turn to other business or attempt to build Wednesday's 54-42 vote up to the necessary two-thirds.

Mansfield said any new vote on debate limitation, or cloture, would come Monday. If invoked, cloture would limit each senator to one more hour of talk on a motion to put the House-passed bill up for Senate consideration. Mike Mansfield indicated he is pessimistic.

"You know as well as I do," Mansfield told a reporter who asked about the outlook.

Cloture probably will not be invoked unless Republican Leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois drops his opposition. And Dirksen says he is not changing his mind.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., the bill's floor manager, said he had recommended a new debate-halting effort.

He, too, conceded it would be difficult to change enough minds to reverse the outcome.

"This vote makes it clear that a Senate majority supports this bill," Hart said after Wednesday's roll call.

Fine Stock to Be Shown at Show Here

Visitors to the 1966 Third District Livestock Show, to be held in Hope on September 26 through October 1, will have an opportunity to see some of the finest livestock produced in the entire area as well as an interesting variety of commercial and educational exhibits.

The exhibits will be displayed in the newly remodeled section of the coliseum, which will afford a much more attractive setting than in previous years.

A special attraction on Tuesday, September 27th will be a Flower Show titled "A Rodeo of Flowers" under the sponsorship of the Hope Council of Garden Clubs.

This is the first time in several years that a flower show has been held in connection with the livestock show and show officials predict that it will be one of the major attractions during the week.

The coliseum will be a setting for some form of entertainment each evening during the week. On Monday evening, the annual Youth Talent Contest will be held.

Tuesday evening will be the Annual Fair Queen Contest with contestants from most of the southwest Arkansas counties; winners at county and district levels compete at the state show in October for the title of Arkansas Fair Queen.

The Young lady elected Arkansas Fair Queen will represent the state of Arkansas in the Miss Universe Contest in 1967. The annual Quarter Horse Show is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon and evening and the last three evenings will be devoted to the annual rodeo.

Admission to events in the Coliseum will be free for the first three nights. Admission to the Rodeo will be $1.00 for adults and 50¢ for children. On the midway all week will be Sonny Myers Amusement shows with more than 20 rides and numerous concessions. Children will be admitted to the Fair Grounds free on Thursday, September 29th, designated as "Kids Day", from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m., and all rides will be reduced.

An extra attraction for Saturday evening will be the awarding of a brand new 1966 Comet 4 door sedan, retail value $2,642.71 to someone in attendance at the Rodeo.

Gemini 11 Astronauts Back Safe With 1st Automatic Re-entry

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — With an electronic chauffeur guiding them home, the Gemini 11 astronauts rode their spaceship to a perfect safe landing in the Atlantic today, climaxing a sensational three-day mission that set seven space records.

One of man's most exciting and significant space adventures reached a blazing climax when Navy Cmdr. Charles Conrad Jr. and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Richard F. Gordon Jr. dived back through the atmosphere and parachuted into the sea at 10:00 a.m. EDT.

An automatic re-entry system, being tried for the first time, expertly steered Gemini 11 to a near-pinpoint landing 725 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy, just two miles from the aircraft carrier Guam.

For the third straight time, a Gemini capsule landed close enough to the recovery carrier so that television cameras could pick up the descent and splash-down.

Thus, once again, television viewers, seeing the picture relayed through the Early Bird satellite, had a ringside seat to one of man's most spectacular sights.

"You're on TV," mission control center told the astronauts as they dropped toward the sea.

"Roger," Conrad replied.

The television screen showed the spacecraft floating slowly down on its 83-foot chute. Drifting down nearby was a nose section, which had jettisoned so the parachute could be released.

Senators Vote Against Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. J. William Fulbright and John L. McClellan, Arkansas Democrats, were among 21 Democrats and 21 Republicans voting against a motion Tuesday to cut off debate on the civil rights bill.

The cloture motion led 52 to 42, but the count was ten votes shy of the two-thirds required to force an end to debate.

The vote was seen as a crippling blow to those supporting the bill.

Marines Pour in to Choke Infiltration

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Ships and helicopters landed a reinforced battalion of U.S. Marines three miles south of the demilitarized zone between the two Viet Nams today to help choke off infiltration by Hanoi's regulars. A barrage of shells and rockets churned beach areas in advance. The Communists offered no resistance.

More than 1,200 American Leathernecks moved in to give a hand to two battalions of Vietnamese government troops already in the area. Briefing officers said the sweep is aimed against North Viet Nam's 324B Division, apparently resupplied, regrouped and moving again after losing nearly 1,000 men killed in Operation Hastings in July.

The action developed as the U.S. Command disclosed American combat deaths over five years in Viet Nam have passed the 5,000 mark. Seventy-one deaths last week pushed the total to 5,034.

Overall, 238 of the allies were killed and 42 missing or captured during the week, while enemy losses were put at 1,166 killed and 218 captured. South Viet Nam's armed forces lost 174 men killed and 34 missing.

Thinks Black Power Is a Good Concept

By JACK R. MILLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civil rights worker David Rusk believes "black power" is a good concept.

The son of Secretary of State Dean Rusk says the black power movement is the logical result of a severe decline in white support for the civil rights movement "at a time when the real work has just begun."

Young Rusk, 25, No. 2 man in the Washington branch of the National Urban League, defines black power as the uniting of Negro masses in a "power fulcrum for change."

Yet he abhors certain statements by such black power advocates as Stokely Carmichael, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, who recently told a group of Washington Negroes, "If we don't get the vote, we're going to burn down the city."

"It's unfortunate," says Rusk, "that a basically good idea has to be abused in this way."

Rusk, who labors daily in the slums of the capital, dug into a second helping of cole slaw at a cafeteria and, between mouthfuls, offered this rationale for his position.

Despite civil rights legislation and the war on poverty, the average Negro in a big city slum "isn't noticeably better off today than he was 20 years ago — and the Negro on the street can see this." At the same time, "many of the white supporters of the movement feel that they have done their part and have lost interest since passage of recent legislation. SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y.—(NEA)—The Beautiful People are packed in, body against beautiful body, squirming a little to the music.

Lights flash on and off. Patterns are projected over the walls. The noise level hurts. Films run constantly on three screens.

It reminds you of the torture scene in the film, "The Ipcress File," when a man's senses were assaulted to the breaking point and his brain was washed to believe what the enemy wanted.

But The Beautiful People, the Jet Set darlings, are here because they want to be, enjoying an evening at a discotheque.

At the invitation of 20th Century-Fox, they are gathered to see a midnight premiere of "Modesty Blaise."

They dance, oh how they dance... the frug, the jerk, the monkey, the swim. Beat... lights... sensuous brass... shaking beautiful bodies. But it's all so athletically lacking in sex it could be a mad scene in the YWCA gym as directed by the Marquis de Sade.

No Doctors Can Peer at Viruses, Details of Cells

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

We have become so used to the electrocardiograph and other pieces of modern electronic equipment it is hard to imagine how we ever got along without them. The electron microscope has made it possible to see the internal structure of the bacteria which formerly were seen as mere dots through the ordinary light microscope. The conventional microscope can magnify an object about 2,500 diameters, compared with a magnification of 100,000 diameters by the electron microscope. The latter has made it possible to visualize the many viruses whose presence formerly was known only through their behavior. Some of these have a thickness of only 120,000,000 of an inch. In addition to these agents of disease, the electron microscope has made it possible to study human cells in greater detail and to examine the chromosomes and genes that determine our hereditary characteristics. The electromyograph measures the electric potential of muscles. When muscles have been paralyzed this machine helps your doctor to determine how much to expect in the way of rehabilitation. These and other electronic devices are adding to your doctor's understanding of disease. Other equipment not yet invented is sure to help your doctor in the years to come. Yet, valuable as they are as tools for diagnosis and treatment, none is as important or as perceptive as that age-old electronic machine—your doctor's experienced brain.

Q—What is paratyphoid? What causes it and what are the aftereffects?

A—Of the many germs classed as Salmonellas (germs that cause one type of food poisoning), three were originally called paratyphoid organisms because the disease they caused was similar to that caused by the closely related typhoid germ. The disease virtually starts with vomiting, diarrhea and fever. As with typhoid fever the victim recovers he may be a carrier of the germs.

The disease is acquired through contaminated foods—especially milk, eggs and shellfish. The contamination is aided by flies or the soiled hands of a patient or carrier. Recovery in two or three weeks is the rule.

Q—Does a head cold cause an increase in white blood corpuscles?

A—Many infections cause such an increase but the common cold is not one of them.

A top wind speed of 183 miles per hour was recorded at Milton, Mass., in the 1938 New England hurricane.

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The Beautiful People are on a continuing kick that gives those with less money more confidence in buying furniture and bric-a-brac for the home.

A BP, if one hasn't hit your local airstrip yet, is a jet-setter, only more so. To qualify, one must be of society or so close to the fringe that a little Pucci print and a conversational knowledge of LSD are basic equipment. These are the people who are reported as the goers and the doers.

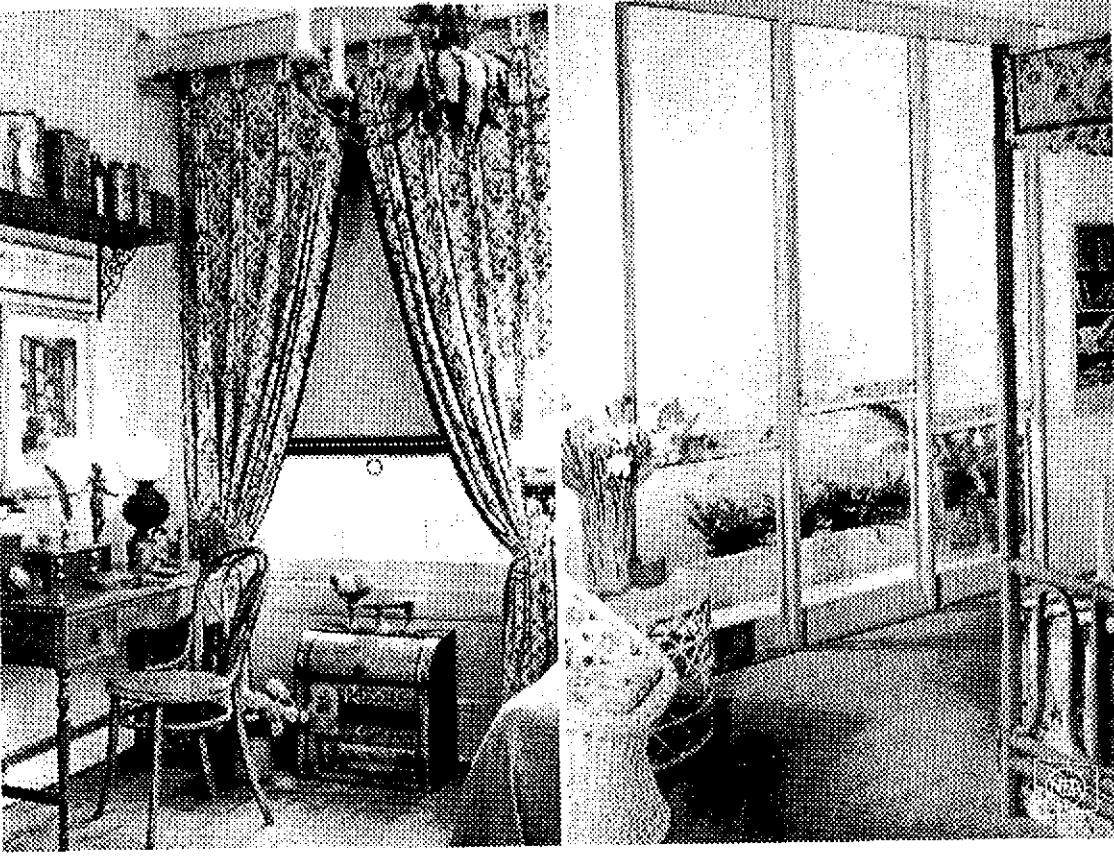

Fortunately, the BPs occasionally start something as a lark that everyone, and not just their set, can do and enjoy. Shopping in second-hand, Army-Navy surplus, Salvation Army and Goodwill Industries stores is the latest.

Now young marrieds can feel at home when they combine new and used furniture. It's quite chic.

But there is more to making a success of such a purchase than merely putting it on display.

How an old desk, some canisters, coal shuttles and such are used in a room make the difference between junk transferred from a second-hand shop into your home and good interior design.

A study-bedroom, for example, was outfitted by Ray

A VIEW FROM THE window shows what can be done with pickup items from second-hand or antique shops, some fabric and paint. Old prints, canisters and print reproduction with fringe repeated on window shade sets tone of study-bedroom corner (left). Kindell, an artist and interior designer here. He searched out-of-the-way places for an interesting collection of antique tins and bins, old lamps, an old phone and an unusually splatted Bentwood chair.

Kindell converted a vanity into a desk by removing its mirror. Then he spent time grouping the items for an authentic Early American feeling.

A final step he took was to pull the room together with a traditional window treatment. To do this Kindell explains he selected tie-back draperies in a reproduced old print. This he edged with brown fringe and hung on fabric loops from an old-fashioned wooden curtain pole. He used three rows of the brown fringe on window shades of a cream color to pick up the background of the draperies and unify the window.

The total effect of the study-bedroom is one of muted colors and softness which Kindell wanted in the midst of a metropolis.

Enjoy Honeydew And Cheese Salad

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

September, along with August, are the peak months for melons with "the sweetness of honey and the freshness of dew."

LAYERED HONEYDEW AND CHEESE SALAD

(Makes 6 servings)

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin

1 1/2 cups cold water

1 1/2 cups hot water

1/2 cup sugar

1/2 teaspoon salt

1 1/2 cup fresh lemon juice

1 1/2 cups fresh honeydew balls

1 (3 oz.) package cream cheese, softened

1/2 cup diced celery

Soften gelatin in cold water. Add hot water, sugar and salt. Stir to dissolve gelatin. Add fresh lemon juice. Divide into 2 equal portions. Place one part in refrigerator to chill until as thick as fresh egg whites. Leave the remaining half at room temperature until ready to use. Stir honeydew balls into chilled gelatin and pour into a 1-quart mold. Chill until firm. Chill remaining gelatin until as thick as fresh egg whites. Add cream cheese and beat mixture until frothy. Stir in celery and pour into mold over firm honeydew layer. Chill until firm and ready to use. Unmold on serving plate and garnish, if desired, with honeydew balls and fresh mint leaves.

Knits Add Variety To Sewer's Wardrobe

The fabric counters bulge with rolls of lovely knitted fabric, some bonded, and so easy to make into a costume.

The design shown, for example, can be made as a two-piece jacket and dress or the jacket can be a bodice attached to the skirt section at the hipline.

The important part is to choose a fabric soft enough to shir as in the front gore, firm enough so darts will hold to position and right in texture and color to be truly becoming.

If you make this as a separate jacket and dress, be sure to use a very soft lining for both the dress and jacket. China silk is ideal. There is also a very good nylon imitation that is less expensive.

The smoke ring-type collar may be made of self fabric, satin, velvet, velveteen or brocade. The fabric used can really dress up the costume. If you wish, you can use a 3-inch facing of the collar fabric in the bottoms of the sleeves.

When making a collar, such as shown, clip the seam at the lower edge, press it open, ease the neck edge into a bias binding. Make sure there are no wrinkles but that the fullness is eased in so the outside edge will be flat and smooth.

Always remember when cutting and sewing that fabric grains must be respected.

Take two thicknesses of the fabric and test your machine stitch for length before you begin to sew the garment. Remember when stitch-

Campus Fashion on a Budget Swinging Nuns Prefer Bossa Nova

By ROBERT COCHNAR
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second of two related columns on organizing a back-to-school wardrobe.)

NEW YORK — (NEA) — It is always nice to return to campus with a trunk full of shiny, new duds. Your position as a BMOG is almost assured and you bask in the envy of your threadbare colleagues.

But this is the stuff of dreams. Most students find it very difficult to pay for tuition, room, board, books, beer and potato chips, let alone the funds for a new wardrobe. So they must necessarily cut corners and make do with the basics.

There are ways, however, to stretch a skimpy wardrobe. Unfortunately, many undergraduates don't learn the sartorial tricks until their last year and then it is too late. Here are a few hints which will put you in the forefront of the fashionable set at minimum expense.

• STAY CASUAL: At least 75 per cent of the time you do not wear suits; slacks and sweaters will be the daily uniform. A half-dozen pairs of expensive slacks (chinos and bluish cottons, oatmeal and navy blue) plus two or three pairs of better quality trousers (hopsacks, cavalry twill, whipcord, herringbone) will give you considerable style flexibility.

Be sure, too, to pack at least four or five sweaters. One ought to be in a rather bold pattern but the others should be more subdued—shades of camel, heather and dark blue or brown. Boat, vee, crew and turtleneck are appropriate. Your sweater collection is distinctive and small at the same time, it will look as if you own just a few.

• DOUBLE-DUTY SHIRTS: If you can swing a dozen shirts, three or four of them can be bold. But if your budget doesn't permit your best bet is to opt for button-down oxfords in white, blue and stripes. These can be worn with or without tie. NOTE: The "in" shirt this season retains the long-point, flared collar but the locker loop and the button on the back of the collar are gone, replaced by a flapped, buttoned breast pocket.

• VITAL FOOTWEAR: A pair of hand-sewn mocs is mandatory. You should also have a pair of black or cordovan wing-tips or bluchers. Throw in a pair of quality tennis shoes and, if you have a few more dollars, a pair of desert boots.

• TIES: A half-dozen is basic and make sure you don't pay too much less than $3 each. Cheaper cravats simply don't last and they look shoddy. Traditional regimental stripes are safe, but flesh out your tie wardrobe with a distinctive Paisley and a couple of solid knits.

• SUITS AND JACKETS: Include one good three-piece suit in traditional, natural-shoulder style. If you can afford only one suit, make sure it's dark — charcoal gray, brown or navy blue. Hopsack, herringbone tweed or an unfinished worsted is appropriate. A navy blue blazer is also a necessary and versatile item.

• OUTERWEAR: If you can afford a topcoat (make it a British warm or dark, knee-length tweed), you'll be particularly stylish on formal occasions. But you can easily make do with a quality raincoat which features zip-out lining. A parka, goal coat or ski jacket will work well during the school day.

Luncheon Meat Provides Easy, Tasty Entree

Hospitality of a casual nature is the style for summer. This, of course, includes the informal luncheon for two or three friends who may live near you.

Build a menu around these Luncheon-Cheese Balls with au gratin-style mixed vegetables, spiced fruits, hot biscuits and lime sherbet.

Luncheon-Cheese Balls
1 can (12 ounces) luncheon meat, ground
¾ cup grated sharp cheese
2 tablespoons grated onion
1 egg
¼ cup cracker crumbs
½ cup milk
1 cup crushed cornflakes
Lard for deep-fat frying
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk

Combine meat with cheese, onion, egg and cracker crumbs. Form into 8 balls. Coat with milk then cornflakes. Fry in deep lard (360° F.) until browned lightly. Serve with cream sauce made as follows: melt butter, stir in flour; add milk slowly, stirring constantly. Cook until thickened. 4 servings.

CAMPINAS, PERNAMBUCO (AP) — Brazil's swiftest nuns prefer bossa nova to ballads. Joining together in a twelve-voice combo, sisters of the Congregation of the Mission of Crucified Jesus, have been exploding the musical scene with one hit record after another for the last three years.

"Popular music," they explain, "is bound to be one of the future methods of spreading the Word of God."

When the religious combo launched its first record in 1963 called "Missionaries in LP" they surprised everyone with a runaway best-seller, aside from causing a minor scandal.

But the church backed them and permitted them to record another album.

The songs they sing are filled with rhythm and poetry. Half in English and half in Portuguese, all of them are written by the sisters themselves. They are always happy, and communicative.

The most popular hits have been, "When the heart sings" and "Don't let me go wrong." The twelve sisters participate in all phases of the recording productions.

Sister Marluce Sposito sings and plays the violin, sister Irene Gomes writes the songs, sister Maria Auxiliar is the arranger and soloist, and Sister Glauca plays the piano, marimba and the violin.

The other sisters form a background orchestra made up of violins, accordians, marimbas and drums.

The sisters of the mission, which was founded in 1928 by Dom Francisco, the 2nd Bishop of Campinas, are now nationally known for their music as well as their smiling and friendly attitude.

Sister Maria Vilato, the mother-superior sometimes sings along with the group and says, "They are one of the best combos when it comes to harmony."

The nuns have appeared on numerous television shows wearing their common grey habit. All their profits go into the missionary work of their order.

Sister Lucia describes their message simply: "If it's good it can also swing."

Keep out of the kitchen—California Style

An outdoor party with a California motif is always a treat, no matter where you live. California hospitality means gracious and easy living at its best.

The primary goal of outdoor dining is keeping out of the kitchen, so use as many disposable accessories as possible. This would include a paper tablecloth, paper napkins, paper plates, beverages in throw-away bottles and cans, and disposable utensils.

To chill beverages quickly, take the largest bucket you can find in the house, fill with cold water and plenty of ice cubes and place the beverages in it. Within 20 minutes you'll have ice cold drinks.

Now take the biggest waste basket you can find for disposing of your paper accessories and put it in an inconspicuous spot in the party area.

To highlight your California party table, California Pottery design paper plates are in order, adding the popular Spanish touch with the convenience of disposable plates. Made by Fonda, and available at your grocery store, these plates come in a beautifully vivid, authentic pottery design and are the strongest paper plates made. Using Standard Packaging Corp.'s Firmex process, the plates will not buckle, sag, crack or bend no matter how much food is served on them. They also have a heavy plastic coating, preventing soak-through of hot sauces.

A terrific Golden State menu should include a buffet of an easily prepared meatball dish*, rice, a tossed green salad and fresh fruit for dessert.

*MEATBALLS

1 lb. chopped meat
½ c. Corn Flake Crumbs
1 large egg
1 chopped onion
¼ c. ketchup
1 c. beer
½ c. raisins.

Mix meat, crumbs, egg and onion. Roll into meatballs and place in large casserole dish. Then mix ketchup and beer and pour over meatballs. Cook for 45 minutes on medium flame. Add raisins. Serve immediately or freeze and reheat when ready to use. Serves 4. Easy meal! Beautiful plates! California, here you come.

Try Dutch Babies with Bartlett Pears

DUTCH BABIES with Bartlett pears.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The Bartlett pear crop on the Pacific Coast is especially good this year. When it recalls a specialty of one of Seattle's oldest restaurants, Manca's, famous for its pop-over-like Dutch Babies with pears. Unfortunately Manca's closed in 1955 after 56 years when the building on Columbia St. was razed.

This revised, modernized recipe for Manca's Dutch Babies is something special in pancakes. Prepare the batter ahead and bake just before serving. Quickly brown the pears, which you slice ahead of time and sprinkled with lemon juice until time to cook. Serve with plenty of lemon juice and powdered sugar.

BARTLETT'S AND DUTCH BABIES

4 Bartlett pears
¼ cup butter
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
Powdered sugar
Lemon wedges

Core and slice pears. Melt butter in skillet. Add pear slices and cook over medium heat until pears are lightly browned. Sprinkle sugar and cinnamon over pears and cook a minute longer until pear slices are glazed. Serve on Dutch Babies with powdered sugar and lemon. Four servings.

DUTCH BABIES

1 cup heavy cream
3 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
8 eggs
Butter

Combine cream, flour and salt in bowl. Beat in eggs until all ingredients are evenly blended. Butter 8 small ramekins and dust with flour. Divide batter evenly between the pans. Bake at 450 degrees 15 to 20 minutes or until golden brown around the edges. Serve hot, filled with glazed pear slices and accompanied with powdered sugar and lemon.
